

From the Waupun Mayor –

Hello Waupun,

This column will be different as it's going to be more personal. As Mayor I've lived pretty open and have shared health issues and talk about my family and I want to do more today, because I'm going to need you all to help keep me on my toes.

Often people come up to me and tell me they're praying for me, which is always a very nice gesture. I don't know if it's a result of all the praying, but I have done a little soul searching and I've noticed that my priorities aren't what they should be.

What do I mean? Being mayor is a very busy job. I try to attend every event I can, visit the kids at schools, run all the meetings, give speeches, represent Waupun all over, and I enjoy doing all these things. However, the people I'm the closest to are kind of eating a poop sandwich. I've realized I haven't been the best husband or friend to a couple of my closest friends, and that's a priority I have to work on.

I don't know why I'm sharing all this, other than to thank you for your continued support, your prayers, and your understanding that while I am trying to give this job everything that I have, I have to prioritize family and friends more than I have been.

God has put a few amazing women in my life who've helped me figure this out. I want to thank my wife Jenny, my friend Carly, and my assistant Angie, for-in their own ways, and largely by accident, - for helping me understand that I had to refocus.

Waupun is a great little city, and my friend Jason and I have been visiting the churches of Waupun on Sunday mornings. We've really been enjoying seeing the different services and meeting so many people.

As we approach Easter, I'm reminded that the city is closed on Good Friday. The city renamed it the spring holiday a while ago and I have asked that we go back to calling it Good Friday. I know the Freedom From Religion group has threatened to sue me, but so what. I think it's the right thing to do, and it's not the first time I've been threatened to be sued.

Thank you for letting me be your mayor, Waupun! I love you all.

Thank you and God Bless,
Mayor Rohn

Snowfall is measured at the Waupun Safety Building. During these early morning hours the Public Works Department is out cleaning the streets. If cars are parked on the streets during this time City staff has the authority to have the vehicle removed and stored at the owners expense. For further information regarding winter parking regulations please visit the city website www.cityofwaupun.org (Government, Municipal Codes), and review Chapter 6, Traffic Code section 6.05(5).

SNOW AND ICE REMOVAL is addressed in Chapter 7 of our municipal code. Property owners are given 24 hours after the end of a snowfall to remove snow and ice from sidewalks. Failure to do so is cause for the city to clean up the area and will result in a minimum fee of $100.00. The City provides notice of these winter rules in the local paper and will put door hangers on any property they have to clean up. Pictures of the property are taken before the property is cleaned for verification of violation. THE ELDERLY IN OUR COMMUNITY DESIRE YOUR HELP!

There is a significant need in and around Waupun for a variety of services for the elderly. Some of these services include house cleaning, moving/downsizing, lawn/landscaping services, home repairs, snow removal, technology help and more. To that end, the ONE Waupun ministry is organizing the ongoing efforts to connect those in need with those that are able to donate some of their time. We plan to start offering these services to the seniors in Waupun soon; however, we first need to generate a list of people that are willing to serve. Even if you can only help occasionally, it all helps. We need both men and women volunteers. Also, we realize that some of you may be reluctant to serve right now because of COVID, but please fill out this survey with the idea that this virus should be less of a concern in the coming months. To learn more about this service and to sign up as a volunteer, please go to www.onewaupun.com and click on the “Service” link at the top of the page.
